

Lake Louise Camps Summer 2009

There is a $50 rebate available to any first-time camper and to any returning camper who brings a first-time camper with them. The following camps are eligible: all senior high camps, middle school camp, elementary Polar Bear camp, and Choir Camp. Get the rebate form at www.lakelouisecommunity.org under Camper's Forms.

Camp Theme: The View from the Mountain Top
Camp Name: Horizons
Dates of Camp: June 7-12
Ages or Grades Accepted: Adults
Dean: Pat Arvilla
Cost of Camp: $245 (cabin)
$295 (semi-private room)

Camp Description:

Focusing on the horizon refocuses our orientation and assists with course correction. Evening vespers at the Firebowl with Revs. Lynn and Kay DeMoss, music with Living Truth 2, and Bible study with Pat Arvilla. Horizons provides an experience of Christian growth and fellowship intended for adults who desire spiritual refreshment and purposeful living for the years ahead.

Camp Theme: Common Life, Uncommon Service
Camp Name: Re-Member
Dates of Camp: June 10-13
Ages or Grades Accepted: College-Aged Adults
Dean: Carl Gladstone
Cost of Camp: $165

Camp Description:

Re-Member is the premiere Michigan area gathering for young adults trying to discern God's call for their lives. Join us for worship, fellowship, and conversation grown from the lives of those gathered. Participate in workshops on intentional living, practical skills for serving God by serving others, and immersion experiences that invite us to learn about how our faith informs our work on pressing needs in the world. Reconnect, revisit, and re-imagine our lives together as young people serving Christ.

Camp Theme: Living Water
Camp Name: Holy Ground
Dates of Camp: June 21-27
Ages or Grades Accepted: Grades 10-13
Dean: David Eardley
Cost of Camp: $356

Camp Description:

Who doesn't like water? Whether you drink it, play in it, float in it, or walk on it, water is necessary to life. Jesus said, "Anyone who is thirsty, come to me and drink." There's no better place to experience this kind of "living" water than at camp. Get your feet wet, watch a belly-smacker, go boating, drop the anchor and relax, fish with friends, and take the cruise of your life. Come on in...The water's great!

Camp Theme: God's Praise Surrounded by God's Creation
Camp Name: Choir Camp
Dates of Camp: June 28 – July 4
Ages or Grades Accepted: Grades 4 - 13
Deans: Terry and Dave Gladstone
Cost of Camp: $377

Camp Description:

We become friends through singing, great evening events, hilarity, cabin mates, wonderful counselors, fun activities, challenging thoughts, and all of this singing God's praise surrounded by God's creation. At the end of the week we put on an awe-inspiring concert. Come join our circle of friends.

Camp Theme: The Red Letters
Camp Name: Romans 12:10
Dates of Camp: July 5 - 11
Ages or Grades Accepted: Grades 10 - 13
Deans: Liz and Matt Carr
Cost of Camp: $356

Camp Description:

red-let-ter (red' let' ðr) adj. Designating a memorable day or event: from the custom marking holy days on the calendar in red ink. "There is love, truth, hope, peace, forgiveness and life in the red-letters." What are those red letters in your Bible? What do they mean? How do they work in your real world? Can they help you find fulfillment? Join us for a week of friends and fellowship as we begin to figure out how Jesus' words work in our world. Mark the dates in RED.

Camp Theme: Rocks
Camp Name: Radical Community
Dates of Camp: July 12 - 18
Ages or Grades Accepted: Senior High, Grades 10 - 13
Deans: Jeremy Williams and Kelly Houghtaling
Cost of Camp: $356

Camp Description:

For one week, be who you really are—not just what others think you are. For one week, ask the questions that matter to you, without being judged. Have fun without wondering who is watching. Trust the people around you to accept you and care about you. That's what radical community means. Why rocks? In the Bible, a woman was condemned by her community. They were going to throw rocks at her to kill her, but Jesus changed their minds.

Camp Theme: The Calling: Discerning God's Voice.
Camp Name: L.I.F.E. – Living In Full Effect
Dates of Camp: July 19 - 25
Ages or Grades Accepted: Senior High, Grades 10-13
Deans: Brad Brillhart and Inge Whittemore
Cost of Camp: $356

Camp Description:

What does God's voice sound like? Can you hear me now? What is God's plan for my life? This week will help you discern God's call upon your life. Enjoy a week of being with friends, making new friends, kayaking, sports, art and music as we explore God's calling.

Camp Theme: Finding Our Bear-ings
Camp Name: Elementary Week
Dates of Camp: Teddy Bear, July 26 - 28

Black Bear July 26 - 29
Polar Bear July 26 - August 1
Ages or Grades Accepted: Teddy Bear, Grades K-3
Black Bear, Grades 1-4
Polar Bear, Grades 4-6
Coordinating Dean Judy Mayo
Cost of Camp: Teddy Bear $120 per person
Black Bear $180 per person
Polar Bear $356

Camp Description:

Our goal for elementary week is to deepen the understanding of the stories of our faith and to provide an experience that moves children toward independence, resilience and confidence. At Teddy Bear camp children and adults are housed and participate in activities together. Black Bear Camp is the second step and children and adults are housed separately, but participate in activities together and separately. Polar Bear Camp is the third step and older elementary-aged children participate in a week of camp independently.

Camp Theme: Take the Plunge
Camp Name: Middle School
Dates of Camp: August 2 – 8
Ages or Grades Accepted: Grades 7 - 9
Dean: Alicea Williams
Cost of Camp: $356
Camp Description:

Get your feet wet, dive in, drink deeply. Jesus said that he was the “Living Water.” This is the camp where that “Living Water” can refresh your life and you can have fun playing water games, kayaking the lake with new friends, and spend an afternoon at the biggest and best waterpark in Michigan. C’mon! You will be refreshed body and spirit. Take the plunge!

Camp Theme: Sacramental Living & Common Union
Camp Name: New Community
Dates of Camp: August 23 - 28
Ages or Grades Accepted: Family Camp for Young Clergy & Ministry Professionals
Dean: Vaughn Maatman
Cost of Camp: $235/195 (cabin, adult/child 6+)
$285/245 (semi-private, adult/child 6+)
$115 (children 3-5)
Children under 2 are free.

Camp Description:

In the midst of life as a balancing act with competing priorities, sacramental living for young clergy and ministry professionals and their families. During this week together, we want to hear your excitement for ministry and explore areas that are puzzling or difficult. We will work in separate groups as clergy and spouses, but also spend time together on the subject of maintaining an interesting personal life when our public life is ministry.
